ANTI-BIAS CURRICULUM FOR K-12 SOCIAL STUDIES AND LANGUAGE ARTS INSTRUCTION:

A partnership of the Museum of Tolerance and Teaching Tolerance

In this institute participants will learn about the Teaching Tolerance Social Justice Standards and a unique pedagogical approach that integrates identity, diversity, justice and action into instructional planning and delivery. This interactive, dynamic experience held in the Museum of Tolerance and led by experts from Teaching Tolerance, will stretch our understanding and application of social justice education goals and embed social emotional learning within an academic content.

Participants will leave the Institute with the tools to:

- Define the goals of anti-bias education and explain how the Teaching Tolerance Social Justice Standards support a continuum of engagement in diversity, equity and inclusion work in schools.
- Explore key Teaching Tolerance resources designed to support effective integration of anti-bias curriculum.
- Identify anti-bias practices and strategies for social studies and language arts instruction at the elementary, middle and high school level.
- Create at least one anti-bias lesson aligned to academic and social justice standards to use tomorrow.

THIS TRAINING IS GEARED TOWARD K-12 EDUCATORS RESPONSIBLE FOR PLANNING, DELIVERING OR SUPPORTING ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS/LITERACY OR SOCIAL STUDIES INSTRUCTION
