HOOLOGAN SPARROW premiered at Sundance 2016 and has played over 60 film festivals and won over 20 awards including the IDA EMERGING FILMMAKER AWARD and nominations for the INDEPENDENT SPIRIT – TRUER THAN FICTION AWARD, the CINEMA EYE HONORS, and the BFCA CRITICS' CHOICE DOCUMENTARY AWARD. A real-life thriller unfolds as filmmaker NANFU WANG follows a daring Chinese human rights defender seeking justice for six girls who were raped by their principal. The government cracks down violently on the activist – known throughout China as 'Hooligan Sparrow' – arresting her, chasing her across the country, and paying mobs to attack her. Filmmaker Wang herself becomes a target of the state's intimidation tactics as she exposes the truth of China's ongoing human rights catastrophe.
