With Special Guest
Film Co-Director Ron Frank

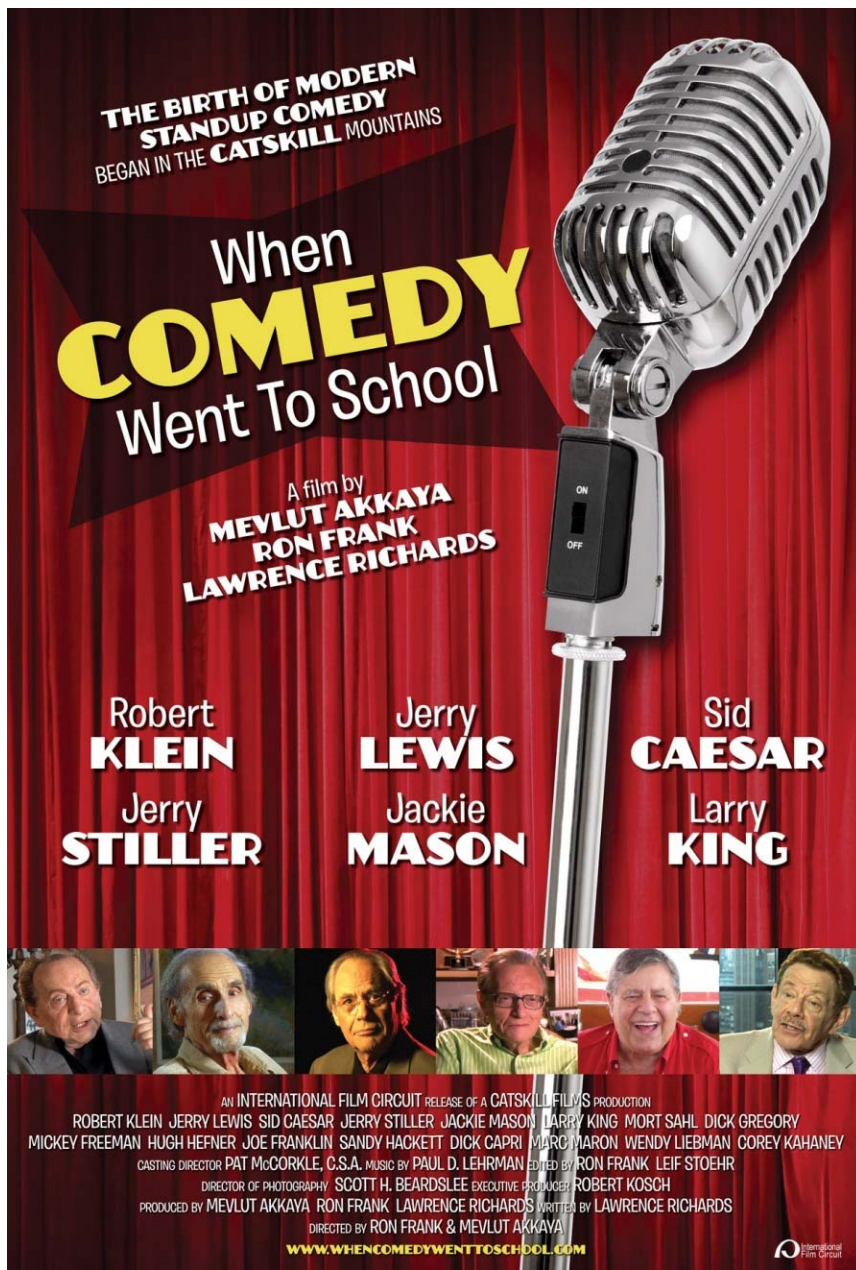

When Comedy Went to School is a feature-length documentary about the greatest generation of Jewish-American comedians who got their start in the Catskill Mountains.

These 500+ hotels and bungalow colonies provided a comedic boot camp for the most fascinating and transformative period in American humor.

This remarkable group included Jerry Lewis, Sid Caesar, Lenny Bruce, Mel Brooks, Woody Allen, Joan Rivers, Billy Crystal and a very young Jerry Seinfeld. When Comedy Went to School. What a graduating class!

Join us for an evening of laughter and memories.

Laemmle Theaters starting August 16th.
