THE MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE
PRESENTS

COURAGE: THE VISION TO END SEGREGATION. THE GUTS TO FIGHT FOR IT.

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 2010

Please join us for a special evening with Civil Rights leaders and citizen activists whose brave actions have changed America forever

6:00 PM - EXHIBITION.

Explore COURAGE: The Vision to End Segregation. The Guts to Fight for It, the award-winning exhibition which tells the story of the brave citizens of Clarendon County, SC, who brought the first of five lawsuits that would challenge racial segregation and lead to the landmark U.S. Supreme Court decision, Brown v. Board of Education.

7:00 PM - PROGRAM.

Few Americans realize that what is known as the case of the century, started in the Carolinas. The final chapters of Brown v. Board of Education played out in the Supreme Court, but the story began when country preacher Reverend J. A. De Laine inspired his community to file a lawsuit demanding the end of separate and unequal schools. Meet B.B. (Brumit), Ophelia and Joseph De Laine, the children of Reverend J. A. De Laine, in conversation with constitutional lawyer Stephen Rohde and other prominent Civil Rights leaders and community activists.
