HOLOCAUST EDUCATION FOR THE 21ST CENTURY NEW APPROACHES AND RESOURCES FROM YAD VASHEM

Presented in partnership with the renowned International School for Holocaust Studies at Yad Vashem this two-day institute introduces new teaching methods and the latest, innovative curricula and resources for teaching the Holocaust. The materials and methods offer a fresh look at the basic building blocks of Holocaust education and how to teach the Holocaust relevant to students' lives today to make them better citizens.

In addition the institute addresses:

- New perspectives on the Final Solution
- How to incorporate Holocaust survivor testimony in the classroom anticipating a world without survivors
- How to deal with Holocaust denial
- The new Antisemitism
- How to engage with literature

Completion of this institute qualifies participants to access all of Yad Vashem's resources including the latest tools and digital resource materials.
