

The Museum of Tolerance invites you to celebrate

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

with us

Family Sunday

February 22, 2009, 12:00pm - 4:00pm

FULFILLING THE DREAM - FROM MLK TO BARACK OBAMA

A one man show with Darryl Van Leer • 1:00pm and 3:00pm

The performance takes an in-depth look at the dreams and hopes of the society that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. envisioned. His vision is then compared to today's progress towards racial equality. The performance includes a dramatization of Dr. King's "I Have a Dream" speech. The audience also relives the electrifying event at Grant Park with President Barack Obama's election night address.

pictured left: Darryl Van Leer as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

ART ACTIVITY - CREATE YOUR OWN MANCALA GAME

Using recycled items, recreate this ancient African game, then take it home and play it with family and friends.

pictured right: Family Sunday, January 2009

EXPLORING AFRICAN AMERICAN LITERATURE

A student art exhibition by Ribét Academy

Ranging from paintings and drawings to collages, this display is a visual representation of how the Black experience profoundly shapes the American experience socially, culturally, politically, and spiritually.

pictured left: Artist: Suzanna Cho, The Soul Brothers and Sister Lou, Color Pencil, Ribét Academy, 12th Grade

Also:

STORYTELLING, MUSIC AND COSTUME FUN

All activities are included with your paid admission to the Museum.

Advance ticket purchase recommended: 310.772.2505.

THE MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE

www.museumoftolerance.com • 9786 W. Pico Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90035