

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY

The Museum of Tolerance invites you and your family for a special performance of

LIVING VOICES: THE RIGHT TO DREAM

A unique combination of theatre, video and live interaction that brings to life the struggle and sacrifice for civil rights in America

Monday, January 21, 2008

Performances at 11:00 am, 1:00 pm and 3:00 pm

Discussion to follow presentation

No charge. Advance reservations required. Call 310.772.2527.

INCLUDE THE MUSEUM IN YOUR MLK DAY PLANS:

Visitors to the Museum are challenged to explore the meaning of tolerance and the consequences of intolerance by focusing on the dynamics of discrimination in our world today.

For Museum hours and ticket prices visit our website:

www.museumoftolerance.com

For reservation and for more information call 310.553.8403