

THE MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE

and ChildFund International PRESENT

to the
POWER
PLAY
FROM
TRASH to TREASURE

The graphic features the words 'to the POWER PLAY FROM TRASH to TREASURE' in a mix of grey, teal, orange, and green fonts. The word 'PLAY' is particularly large and stylized, with the 'P' in teal, 'L' in grey, 'A' in orange, and 'Y' in green. A soccer ball is positioned above the 'O' in 'POWER'. A long, colorful, segmented worm-like object, resembling a beaded necklace or a recycled material, curves across the bottom of the text, starting from the 'P' and ending at the 'Y'.

AN EXHIBITION OF TOYS HANDCRAFTED BY CHILDREN IN AFRICA, ASIA AND THE AMERICAS, MADE FROM RECYCLED AND OTHER LOCALLY AVAILABLE MATERIALS.

OPENS SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2009

12:00PM - 4:00PM - ACTIVITIES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY!

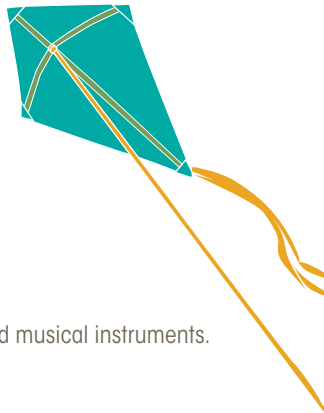

THE EXHIBITION WILL BE ON DISPLAY THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2009

THE MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE

Family Sunday

SEPTEMBER 13, 2009

12:00pm - 4:00pm

Mariachi Magic

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage month by creating artwork and musical instruments.

Toy Treasures

Learn how to make toys like those featured in the exhibition.

Creativity Contest

Have your toy displayed at the Museum! Enter the contest by making your own toy from recycled materials. For guidelines visit www.museumoftolerance.com.

'Back To School' Supply Drive

Bring donations of school supplies to the MOT to help support several of our local Elementary, Middle and High Schools.

All activities are included with your paid admission.

Advance ticket purchase recommended:
310.772.2505.

This exhibition is made possible with generous support from

ChildFund
International
*Formerly named Christian Children's Fund

JAKKS Cares
A Division of JAKKS Pacific, Inc.

KPCC 89.3
Southern California Public Radio

Ralphs

Sponsored by UPS

89.3FM KPCC is the official media sponsor of The Power to Play - From Trash to Treasure