

MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE

STEPS TO TOLERANCE™

for 5th and 6th Grade

AN EFFECTIVE
BULLYING PREVENTION PROGRAM

STEPS TO TOLERANCE™ is a unique, interactive, educational museum experience designed for 5th and 6th grade students. It provides an age-appropriate introduction to Holocaust history and discussion of current issues, including school bullying. This 2.5 hour program takes place entirely in the museum's Youth Action Lab.

Students act as “Explorers” as they connect historical events to contemporary issues of respect and responsibility at school and in the community.

Students:

- Meet a Holocaust survivor and hear personal testimony
- Examine Holocaust artifacts and photographs
- View a short, age-appropriate documentary about the Holocaust
- Investigate the roles of perpetrator, target, bystander and ally in conflict situations
- Vote their opinions in an interactive bullying prevention workshop
- Explore the Para Todos Los Niños exhibit and the impact of the Mendez v. Westminster case, which ended school segregation in California.
- Utilize an Explorer's Notebook that provides follow-up classroom activities

“The bullying portion of the Steps to Tolerance Program has been extremely helpful in solving and extinguishing bullying issues with our students.”

-Lisa Fellers, Palmdale School District
