

SEE. FEEL. CREATE.

Exploring Identity, Empathy, and Hope Through Art

Summer Youth Program Experience

Participants will engage with the Museum of Tolerance's highly interactive Social Lab exhibit, then transition to a creative art-making session in the Genesis Arts Collective Art Studio.

This dynamic program invites young people to explore critical social issues and harness the power of art as a tool for reflection, self-expression, and advocacy.

Weekday time slots:

10 AM–12 PM or 1 PM–3 PM

Youth ages: 10–15

Program length: 2 hours

Capacity: 30 students per program

Price: Free
